

UN FILM PER LA PACE
A FILM FOR PEACE
FESTIVAL

INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL
A FILM FOR PEACE

7th Edition - 2012

 WINDCLOAK
FILM PRODUCTION

July 2

Meeting with directors

GORIZIA

PALAZZO DEL CINEMA, PIAZZA VITTORIA, 41

TIME 9.00 - 11.00 pm

Comune di
Medea

Provincia di
Gorizia

visual studies institute

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
DI UDINE

Corso di Laurea Dams
Sede di Gorizia

 MEATATECA

July 3

Awards Ceremony

MEDEA (GO)

MONUMENTO "ARA PACIS MUNDI"

TIME 8.45 pm

FONDAZIONE

Cassa di Risparmio di Gorizia

Awards Ceremony

July 3

MEDEA (GO)

MONUMENTO "ARA PACIS MUNDI"

TIME 8.45 pm

Presentation

TIME 9.00 pm - LECTURE HALL 3, KINEMAX

Welcome speech

Federico Portelli

Provincial Councilor for Culture, Province of Gorizia

Presentation of the Festival

Alberto Bergamin

Coordinator of the Festival and Mayor of Medea

"A Film for Peace" films section of Mediateca, Gorizia

Roy Menarini

Professor of Cinema History, University of Udine (DAMS),

President of "Ugo Casiraghi" Mediateca of Gorizia,

President of the Jury of the Festival "A Film for Peace"

Presentation of the finalist film and of the special awards

Enrico Cammarata

Artistic Director of the Festival "A Film for Peace"

Films Screenings

TIME 9.30 pm - MOVIE THEATER 3, KINEMAX

Il Sole Tramonta a Mezzanotte (finalist)

by Christian Canderan, 2009, 80', Italy

On July 13, 1944, a boy fifteen years old, Gianni Missana was hanged in his village, Valeriano. Shortly before, in Spilimbergo, nineteen years old Primo Zanetti had the same fate.

TIME 9.30 pm - WHITE MOVIE THEATER, DAMS

Massimo (finalist)

by Cirio D'Emilio, 2011, 13', Italy

Veteran Massimo once is back from a mission in the Middle East, lives his trauma of conflict again.

TIME 9.30 pm - GREEN MOVIE THEATER, DAMS

Life in Italy Is OK (finalist)

by Gianfranco Marino, 2011, 38', Italy

"Life in Italy is OK" the person declaring it is Gloria, a Nigerian patient at the Emergency clinic in Palermo. The documentary shows the tragic condition of the immigrants in Italy, whose right to treatment is often denied.

TIME 9.45 pm - WHITE MOVIE THEATER, DAMS

Fluffy Pink Bunnies (finalist)

by Ava Lanche, 2012, 4', Tuvalu and Egypt

The U.S. government signed the NDAA, National Defense Authorization Act, in which it was declared that each of us can be imprisoned indefinitely, without evidence or trial.

TIME 9.45 pm - GREEN MOVIE THEATER, DAMS

Adieu

(Special Award for the Best Feature Film: Recommended for Schools)
by Alberto Castiglione, 2011, 45', Italy

Twenty years later, this documentary examines the mafia massacres of 1992, trying to understand through the story of photographer Letizia Battaglia how the relationship between Palermo and the culture of legality was changed.

TIME 10.00 pm - WHITE MOVIE THEATER, DAMS

Virgen Negra

(Special Award for the Best Short Film: Recommended for Schools)

by Raúl de la Fuente, 2011, 20', Spain

In Mozambique, the sex life of many women starts at the age of 10 when they are forced to get married. It is a popular belief that AIDS can be cured by having sex with a virgin. A brave documentary without taboos.

TIME 10.25 pm - WHITE MOVIE THEATER, DAMS

Picnic (Special Award for the Best Film on Disarmament, Ex-aequo)

by Gerardo Herrero, 2010, 13', Spain

Grebak. Bosnia. A family goes for a picnic into the forest. Danger is always waiting and is unexpected.

TIME 10.45 pm - WHITE MOVIE THEATER, DAMS

Hermeneutics (Special Award for the Best Film on Disarmament, Ex-aequo)

by Alexei Dmitriev, 2012, 4', Russia

Using World War II combat footage, this documentary shows the destructive power of weapons.

TIME 10.00 pm - GREEN MOVIE THEATER, DAMS

Carbon for Water

("Water Rights" Special Award for the Best Film)

by Evan Abramson & Carmen Elsa Lopez, 2011, 22', USA

The documentary tells the story of the daily life of the children of a Kenyan village having to gather firewood in the forest to boil the unhealthy water taken from a river. After being boiled, the water is used for washing and preparing the food. Despite these precautions, cases of cholera are still reported.

TIME 10.50 pm - Meeting with directors

TIME 11.00 pm - Refreshments